CONSORTIUM FOR CITIZENS WITH DISABILITIES

CCD is the largest coalition of national organizations working together to advocate for Federal public policy that ensures the self-determination, independence, empowerment, integration, and inclusion of children and adults with disabilities in all aspects of society.

Our Vision

The Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities (CCD) envisions a society in which all individuals have the freedom and opportunity to exercise individual decisions concerning their own lives, welfare and personal dignity; in which communities are fully accessible to all individuals with disabilities; and where they are included and fully participate in all aspects of community life.

Our Mission

- ◆ Ensure self-determination, independence, empowerment, integration and inclusion of children and adults with disabilities in all aspects of society
- ◆ Enhance the civil rights and quality of life of all people with disabilities and their families
- ◆ Reflect the values of the Americans with Disabilities Act

CCD Initiatives

- ◆ Developing Federal policy recommendations and encouraging innovative solutions to public policy concerns.
- ◆ Educating members of Congress and the Administration to improve public policies and programs that foster independence, productivity, integration and inclusion of people with disabilities.
- ◆ Encouraging people with disabilities and their families to advocate for themselves.
- ◆ Delivering expert testimony before Congress.
- ◆ Providing Congressional briefings to inform policymakers.
- ◆ Drafting comments in response to notices of proposed rulemaking.
- ◆ Educating the public about disability policy issues.
- ◆ Responding to media requests for information.

Task Forces

CCD addresses a broad range of issues. Most of the public policy work is carried out by task forces. Find co-chair contact information at www.c-c-d.org.
